Fourteen arrested or cited in connection with underage drinking

Two arrested for battery of law enforcement officer; one for unlawful hosting

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (July 27, 2015) — Three people were arrested and 11 more were cited in connection with an underage drinking party early Saturday morning in northeast Arkansas City.

Officers responded at 12:17 a.m. for a report of a possible drinking party involving minors at 1326 North D St. They made contact with several people at the residence and interviewed them.

Zachary Andrew Hughes, 19, of Arkansas City, was arrested on suspicion of battery of a law enforcement officer, interference with a law enforcement officer and consumption of alcohol by a minor (second offense). He was transported to and booked into the Cowley County Jail in lieu of $700 bond through Arkansas City Municipal Court. Hughes since has posted bond and has been released.

Alan Garret Randel, 20, of Arkansas City, was arrested on suspicion of unlawfully hosting minors consuming alcohol. He posted $1,000 surety bond at the Arkansas City Police Department and was released later Saturday.

Roni Leanna Rollins, 46, of Arkansas City, was arrested on suspicion of battery of a law enforcement officer and interference with a law enforcement officer. She was transported to and booked into the Cowley County Jail in lieu of $450 bond through Arkansas City Municipal Court. Rollins since has posted bond and has been released.

Jordan Boone, 19; Jacob Cook, 20; Sydney Eash, 19; Maritza Flores, 20; Jacob Hull, 20; Haley Johnson, 19; Drew Meyer, 20; Trey Mora, 18; Sean Nally, 20; Endercio Perez III, 19; and Kacy Ternes, 20, all were cited and released by ACPD for consumption or possession of alcohol by a minor.

A defendant's guilt or innocence is to be determined by a court of law.
