Outdoor Family Movie Series to resume June 12 at Wilson Park

New 'Jumanji' film planned after market; 'Despicable Me 3' repeats in Newkirk

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (June 8, 2018) — The 2018 Outdoor Family Movie Series will resume Tuesday in Arkansas City with a jungle-themed movie under the Wilson Park rotunda, 701 N. Summit St.

The 2017 comedy "Jumanji: Welcome to the Jungle," sponsored by The Stock Exchange Bank, will be shown starting around 7 p.m. Tuesday. The PG-13-rated film is approximately two hours long.

The movie will begin shortly after the Arkansas City Farm and Art Market ends. The market runs from 4 to 7 p.m. under the rotunda. This particular market is expected to be the largest of this month. It will feature a special Father's Day basket giveaway, live music from Troy Pulver and food samples.

The Smoke Happy BBQ food truck will be open from 4 to 8 p.m. for visitors to enjoy brisket or pulled pork sandwiches. Free bottled water, donated by Orscheln Farm & Home, will be provided to attendees.

At least six more movies are planned this year, including a recent Marvel Cinematic Universe hit and a "three-quel" to the last two years' showings of "Finding Nemo" and "Finding Dory" at Paris Park Pool.

This will be the first of two films to be shown regionally next week. The movie series will return at 8:30 p.m. June 15 with another special outreach night on the Kay County Courthouse lawn in Newkirk, Oklahoma, with a replay of "Despicable Me 3" planned in conjunction with various community events.

"We are so appreciative of the generous sponsors who make these wonderful events possible," said City Manager Nick Hernandez.

"If you are interested in being a sponsor this year, please call myself or Andrew Lawson at 441-4415 to discuss pricing options. There still are some opportunities available in the fall!"

The 2015 Outdoor Summer Movie Series was a huge success in the debut season for the new V.J. Wilkins Memorial Stage at the rotunda, with particularly large crowds viewing “Big Hero 6” and “Frozen.”

The projection equipment, sound system and stage all were made possible by a grant received three years ago from the V.J. Wilkins Memorial Foundation, in order to promote arts throughout the city.

A special fall showing of “Inside Out” drew more than 300 people to the rotunda in November 2015, despite colder temperatures. Plans were launched then for more autumn showings in 2016 and 2017.

Various weather impacted attendance often in the spring and summer of 2016, but the season’s highlight undoubtedly was in June 2016, when more than 700 people packed Paris Park Pool for a special doubleheader, consisting of “Finding Nemo” and “Jaws,” during a free swim-in night at the pool.

The sequel event, featuring “Finding Dory,” drew more than 500 visitors to the pool on July 21, 2017.

The 2018 season kicked off May 5 with the first-ever Saturday night movie, “Coco,” which drew more than 150 people back to the rotunda following the inaugural Cinco de Mayo Salsa Fest event.

During the last three years, the City of Arkansas City has shown a wide variety of movies, including:
