Free Friday Family Film series returns July 12 to Paris Park Pool

Final movie in summer series features free admission; movies to return in fall

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (July 8, 2019) — The 2019 Outdoor Family Movie Series will conclude its summer season Friday in Arkansas City with a superhero movie at Paris Park Pool, 600 W. Fifth Ave.

The aquatic-themed “swim-in” movie night will kick off at 7 p.m. with free admission to the pool.

Around sunset at 8:30 p.m., the free showing of the 2018 DC Extended Universe film “Aquaman” will commence. This film is cosponsored by RCB Bank and Visit Ark City, which will provide free giveaways to event participants. “Aquaman” is rated PG-13, and it has a running time of two hours and 23 minutes.

In the film, Arthur Curry — the human-born heir to the underwater kingdom of Atlantis — goes on a quest to prevent a war between the worlds of ocean and land.

Concessions will be provided by the Arkansas City Recreation Commission and Paris Park Pool.

Friday night’s movie will complete the spring and summer slate of Free Friday Family Films, but three more free movies will be shown in the fall, in conjunction with other planned events.

In case of inclement weather on any movie night, the movie will be postponed to the next Friday.

“We are so appreciative of the generous sponsors who make these wonderful events possible,” said City Manager Nick Hernandez. “If you are interested in being a sponsor in the fall, please call me or Andrew Lawson at 441-4415 to discuss pricing. Sponsorship rates have not changed from 2018 rates.”

About the Free Friday Family Films

The 2015 Outdoor Family Movie Series was a huge success in the debut season for the new V.J. Wilkins Memorial Stage at the rotunda, with particularly large crowds viewing “Big Hero 6” and “Frozen.”

The projection equipment, sound system and stage all were made possible by a generous grant received three years ago from the V.J. Wilkins Foundation, in order to promote arts throughout the city.

A special fall showing of “Inside Out” drew more than 300 people to the rotunda in November 2015, despite colder temperatures. Plans were launched then for more autumn showings in 2016 and 2017.

Various weather impacted attendance often in the spring and summer of 2016, but the season’s highlight undoubtedly was in June 2016, when more than 700 people packed Paris Park Pool for a special doubleheader, consisting of “Finding Nemo” and “Jaws,” during a free swim-in night at the pool.

The sequel event, featuring “Finding Dory,” drew more than 500 visitors to the pool on July 21, 2017.

The 2018 season kicked off May 5 with the first-ever Saturday night movie, “Coco,” which drew more than 150 people back to the rotunda following the inaugural Salsa Fest event on Cinco de Mayo.

Nearly 75 attended the June 12, 2018, showing of “Jumanji: Welcome to the Jungle,” the first-ever Tuesday movie, shown in conjunction with the Arkansas City Farm and Art Market’s monthly festival.

The 2019 season’s start was delayed one week by weather, but a decent crowd still showed up May 10 to enjoy a repeat airing of “Coco,” originally planned as a kickoff for the first-ever Tacolalah festival.

An estimated 200 people showed up June 14 to enjoy “Ralph Breaks the Internet” in Newkirk, Oklahoma. It was the third straight outreach movie shown in the community 10 miles south of Ark City.
